NEW YORK UNIVERSITY | THE STEINHARDT SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

GRADUATE STUDY ABROAD

STUDIO ART IN VENICE

July 1 - August 28, 2005

Immerse yourself in the rich artistic resources of Venice. Take part in an internationally acclaimed graduate studio art program sponsored by NYU's Steinhardt School of Education, Department of Art and Art Professions. This program for both artists and art teachers provides you with opportunities to study original masterpieces of art, engage in intensive studio work, and have your work critiqued by a distinguished faculty of international artists. Earn up to 12 graduate credits.

Includes studio courses in painting, drawing, video art, Venetian art history, and a seminar in art theory and criticism. Research and fieldwork take you to such renowned cities as Vicenza, Padua, Verona, Mantua, and Ravenna and to Palladio villas in the region of Veneto.

Complete your M.A. degree in three summers—two in Venice and one at our Washington Square campus in New York City.

Call: 800-771-4NYU, ext. B29
